

Conversation Starters

PeggySue Wells

Speak intentionally by focusing conversation on topics that encourage and inspire. Have several questions ready that enable you to talk to anyone, anytime. Use the list below to create healthy and lifegiving interactions that live beyond your time together.

- How has your faith impacted your life?
- What has God taught you about Himself?
- If you could go back and talk to yourself at age 18, what would you say to yourself?
- What person has had the most influence on you?
- Who are your heroes - living or dead?
- What are your pet peeves?
- What in the last year has given you the most pleasure?
- What books and films have influenced you?
- What are you reading now?
- What have you enjoyed more, getting to the top or being there?
- Where do you see yourself in ten years?
- What do you want to be remembered for?
- What do you see as your strengths?
- What do you view as your weaknesses?
- What is on your bucket list?
- What makes you laugh?
- What makes you cry?
- Share one of your funniest experiences.
- What was your favorite childhood game?
- What title would you title a book or film about your life?
- What is the most unusual thing you've eaten?
- What invention would you like to see become reality?
- What trend would you like to see return?
- If you had a do-over, what would you choose?
- What haven't I asked that you wish I would?
